To my Church Family,
Thank you so much for all the cards& words of encouragement as well as the delicious food and most importantly the many prayers during my recent back issues and finally surgery. I still have a ways to go and a long recovery so please keep praying. I will need patience to get thru the next few week. Hopefully in three months I will be much better. We appreciate our church family so much.

God bless you all, Sincerely, Colleen Frontz

SMALL GROUP—For those who are leading or want to lead a small group study in the New Year, could you let me know your thoughts or ideas for the study? There will be an upcoming Education meeting to discuss and order any new material that may be needed for your group.
